

THIS LAND: MY BED OF ROSES

By Ayana Noble, B.A., MLitt

"This Barren Land: My Bed of Roses by Ayana Noble is an autobiographical book of poems that offers a poignant insight into the author's life. The book is full of inspirational moments and vivid imagery, moving from scene to scene like a photographic slide show." [Paolina Oppes]

ISBN: 9781741120172 RRP: $19.95 + $5.00 P/H [FAW members] $25.00 + $5.00 p/h [non-members]

Available direct from the Publisher: +61 437919441 or literary.fiction@gmail.com Easy payment by PayPal.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Ayana Noble was born in rural South Western Victoria and resides on a small property in rural Queensland where she spends the majority of her time writing. She is currently working on several works-in-progress that include poetry, short stories and novels.

Ms Noble is a part of Louise Cusack's YON (Year of the Novel) 2008 workshop hosted annually by the Queensland Writing Centre.

She has a Bachelor of Arts :Double Major/Philosophy and Comparative Religious Studies from Deakin University, Geelong, Victoria with electives in Criminology/Police Studies, Micronesian Navigation, Social Theory et al., and a Master of Letters/Creative Writing, from Central Queensland University, Rockhampton, Queensland .

Her poem "Rain Wall" was awarded 1st prize in the Bauhinia Literary Awards (Tertiary Students section). Other credits include:

The Dean's Letter of Commendation for Outstanding Performance, CQU, (Autumn , 2004)

The Dean's Letter of Commendation for Outstanding Performance, CQU, (Winter, 2004)

Publication: This Barren Land: My Bed of Roses (Printed by University of Queensland Press, 2006)

This Barren Land: My Bed of Roses is reviewed by Paolin Oppes in Writing Queensland, November, 2008

<http://ayananoble.synthasite.com>